KITCHEN

AVAILABLE IN A VARIETY OF DIFFERENT SURFACE FINISHES TO FIT YOUR BUDGET AND PERSONAL TASTE

Hard to tell if anything is real or a replica. To be honest, it's difficult to distinguish between the two because Nolte kitchen materials are all distinguished by a distinct sensation of quality. For kitchen enthusiasts with high standards, real materials like cement, metal, wood, or lacquer are the best option. However, many natural goods are also available as high-quality imitation.

These utterly genuine surfaces astonish the senses with flawlessly replicated texture and coloring, and they are in no way less than the original. They also surpass all expectations in fulfilling the desire for uniqueness and something exceptional.

All that's left to do is make a decision.

The new black color palette's expressive surface texture, which shifts from deep black to soft grey depending on the direction of light, combines timeless beauty with a welcoming, homey feel. This kitchen exudes an especially refined atmosphere thanks to its black electrical appliances, black worktop, black sink, and matching mixer tap.

The fairly modest kitchen is made larger and visually appealing by open shelving units and display cabinets. Each area is thoughtfully designed.
